From Pastor Anita Beste

I'm feeling a call to fast during Lent and I would like others to accompany me in this practice. Not just because it's Lent, but because it's a way of entering into a prayerful presence of God. I feel like I need it, like our congregation needs it. Fasting and prayer is a way of coming before God, supporting our congregation in prayer, and praying for discernment in our mission and ministry together.

I've only done a religious fast a half-dozen times in my life – usually on an Ash Wednesday or Maundy Thursday. And each time it was a meaningful experience for me – more spiritual than hungry really. Somehow, when I go without food to diet I just feel hunger and longing for something I can't have. When I go without food to fast I feel emptied and then spiritually filled with something that comes as pure gift.

But I've never done a collective fast – a fast with a group of people – unless you count knowing that other anonymous Christians are fasting on Ash Wednesday too. But I've never done an intentional fast where several people from a group commit to fast together. But I'd like to try it – with two or three of you – or 50 – from Prince of Peace.

There are several ways to fast – 12 or 24 hour fasts, fasting from solid foods while including broths or juices, eating something with your medications, etc. I'll put a basic introduction to fasting in the narthex.

I am not an early riser, but I wish for a time to begin my fast day together with others in prayer – at 6:30 am. And again at noon. Let's gather for a half hour of silent prayer at 6:30 am and noon for six Wednesdays beginning Ash Wednesday, February 21st; come to one or as many as you are able. Come for a time of prayer even if you choose not to fast. And of course, we'll gather for worship together on Wednesdays at 7 pm.

We find God's people praying and fasting throughout the Bible. Read how the early Christians grounded and discerned their new life together in Acts 13 and 14 through prayer and fasting. Or this text from the book of Joel (the verse in bold is the Gospel Acclamation we sing in Lent, LBW p. 63 or 83, instead of Alleluia, Lord, to whom shall we go?)

Joel 2:12-17 Yet even now, says the Lord, return to me with all your heart, with fasting, with weeping, and with mourning; rend your hearts and not your clothing. Return to the Lord, your God, for he is gracious and merciful, slow to anger, and abounding in steadfast love, and relents from punishing. Who knows whether he will not turn and relent, and leave a blessing behind him, a grain offering and a drink offering for the Lord, your God? Blow the trumpet in Zion; sanctify a fast; call a solemn assembly; gather the people. Sanctify the congregation; assemble the aged; gather the children, even infants at the breast. Let the bridegroom leave his room, and the bride her canopy. Between the vestibule and the altar let the priests, the ministers of the Lord, weep. Let them say, "Spare your people, O Lord, and do not make your heritage a mockery, a byword among the nations. Why should it be said among the peoples, 'Where is their God?' "

Thank You Corner

To my Prince of Peace family a huge Thank You for your prayers and words of encouragement. Your thoughtfulness has been heart warming during this time of healing. God has Blessed me with good health and I'm thankful and happy to be back with you for Sunday morning worship.

With Love, Arlo Overskei

My dear friends of Prince of Peace. Thanks is a very small word for the warm feeling in my heart. Thank you, Pastors Andrew and Anita, and all others for your visits to the hospital, nursing home and our home, they were all wonderful and so appreciated. Thank you for your payers, the beautiful cards, most with a loving word of encouragement. Thank you for the delicious food, always so welcome. Thank you wonderful friends "The Befriender," I will ever cherish the beautiful knit shawl, so warm and comforting. God bless you all.

With Love, Ferne Wachter

Greetings from the Music Ministry Coordinator—Milt Warkentien

I'm pleased to welcome Cheryl Broostin as our interim organist. She will be accompanying the Chancel Choir on Wednesday evenings and serving as our keyboardist on the Sundays the Chancel Choir sings. Cheryl will also be serving as our keyboardist for most of the Wednesday night Lenten services. For these services we will again be using the Holden Village Service. The Wednesday Lenten Services will begin at 7:00 pm.

A couple dates to note: Good Friday, April 6th, the Chancel Choir will be doing Gabriel Faure's "Requiem", with a small orchestra. See Kathy if you'd like to come on board for this exciting piece. Sunday, April 22nd a "Children's" Musical will be led by Kay Johnson, Ruth Hagander and Anne Olson. A big thank you to this threesome and to Laurel Cederberg and Liz Ericksen who are leading the children's choir on Wednesday evenings until the musical begins. The meeting time for the Children's choir is 6:15 (maybe 6:00 during Lent). The 1st rehearsal for the musical will be Wednesday February 21st.

February brings us to the season of Lent. What does Lent mean to you?? Like Advent, we know the ending of the story during Lent, too. What a bizarre time it must have been for the disciples, though. The disciples didn't know the outcome. Just think of all the passages in scripture where Jesus tells the disciples what is going to happen and they just don't "Get It". How many of us "Get it" and we KNOW the outcome. For me Lent is again a time for reflection, but unlike Advent, where we reflect on Christ's anticipated birth, in Lent we reflect on all that God gave up for us. It is truly amazing what we've been given. I hope the music during Lent helps you have a meaningful worship season.

I was asked to say why music is important to Prince of Peace, for the Prince of Peace web-site. This was an interesting and fun question to ponder (Especially coming into the season of Lent). Why do we use music in worship? Check out the web-site for the full response, but here is a little "food for thought".

- 1) Tradition: What a rich tradition of music the Lutheran church has.
- 2) Service: The ability to use one's own talents to share God's Word.
- 3) Appreciation: The enjoyment of God's Word musically.
- 4) Favorites: The hymns, anthems or songs that have touched us.

I think music is God's Spirit "living" in all of us. Music can enhance God's Word in so many ways. From a simple Children's Song like "Jesus Loves Me" or an "old" standard like "Amazing Grace" to a new hymn like "Shine on Us" we are all given a new way to understand and FEEL God's word every time we hear that particular piece. Thank you all for the support you've given the music staff and we hope the music that is created helps you have meaningful worship experiences. Please take the time to THANK the many musical volunteers that make Prince of Peace such a special place for music and worship.

May God Bless, Milt

Public Concert at 3:00pm

North Heights Lutheran Church in Arden Hills

Bellfest! is an annual ringing festival for handbell ensembles. As many as forty handbell ensembles and all of their ringing equipment gather on Saturday to ring under the direction of a guest clinician. The repertoire, learned ahead of time by the ringers, is rehearsed in a massed setting, and a concert for the public is performed in the afternoon.

Children and Family Ministry—Ginger Ryan

As I write this article in early January hoping for snow so that we can enjoy some of our winter outdoor activities, I am also thinking ahead to our summer programs. As the Children & Family Ministry coordinator, I often focus most of my attention on programs for children and families with children. However, the definition for family does not have to include children. I went to the trusted Mirriam-Webster dictionary to find a definition. There were 23 different definitions of family. WOW! Apparently, I have A LOT more work to do!

I was able to weed through most of the definitions and stopped at the following to guide my work: a group of people united by certain convictions or a common affiliation. This certainly makes sense in the church. Individuals support one another in times of stress, celebrate milestones together (i.e. baptism, confirmation, graduation, etc.) and share common beliefs.

In order to continue along the path of strengthening our ministry as a family we need to work together! As we all know, a family includes many generations and unique individuals. Prince of Peace is no different. We are a family that will change over time with new births, children growing into adulthood, and the passing of others. However, we will continue to grow if we work together and extend an invitation to others to become a part of our family.

It is my hope for the future our family that we can all participate together in events in addition to worship so that we will know one another better. I encourage EVERYONE in our Prince of Peace family to consider attending All-Church VBS and Family Camp this summer. Both of these programs have been designed so that individuals of every generation will come together to enjoy each other and create more memories as the Prince of Peace Family.

Thoughts from Audrey

Several years ago, the Minneapolis schools encouraged us families to use February as a time for building families and relationships. The schools were encouraging kids to increase the amount of reading they did in a day. They gave us a list of suggested games and activities. The basic 'rule' was to give up T.V., video games, and other electronic entertainment for the month of February.

A number of us decided to take the challenge. The first few days found all of us having to remind each other of the 'rule'. By the end of the month all of us who attempted to refocus our recreational time, were finding that we truly enjoy the change in priorities. We all read more than we otherwise would have done. We learned new games. Both the quality and quantity of our conversations increased. We made good memories.

Recently, I was talking with some of our friends about our February challenge. We shared that our families have kept this 'challenge' as part of our ongoing relationships. We have a rule at the cabin that if the sun is out—no electronics.

Over the years, we have taken a number of Prince of Peace kids to the cabin, and yes, the rule stands. Sometimes I think we need to be intentional about focusing on building relationships. Be intentional about spending time together without distractions. Be intentional about sharing our stories of the day.

I am thankful for the February challenge from years long gone, for they taught me to fully engage in relationship with our loved ones. If you have not tried life without electronic recreation—try it.

Reaching Out to Visitors

Reaching Out to Visitors...When folks visit our congregation, a letter of welcome is sent to them. Additionally, our Evangelism Committee is interested in having a few people who might take turns in dropping by visitors' homes within a day or two of their visit with a plate of cookies, as a further way of extending our welcome.

Please let John Fairchild-Ehm (651-644-6059) or the church office know if you might be interested in helping.

Social Concerns Committee

The social concerns committee discusses issues of environment, poverty, community problems, help for seniors, other social issues. We find ways the members of Prince of Peace can become informed and take actions. We help provide speakers for adult ed. and suggestions for book studies. If you are interested in these issues come to any meeting. We meet the first Wed. of the month at 6:15. For more information call Judy Florine 488-4454.

DONATE/RECYCLE YOUR CELL PHONES, PDA's AND ACCESSORIES!

Prince of Peace has teamed up with Project Re-cell to collect cell phones, PDA's and accessories— put your phone, charger and any other add-ons in a bag so we can keep all parts together. All proceeds received will be donated to the environmental stewardship emphasis through our Social Concerns Committee.

Your used cell phones will be recycled in accordance with EPA regulations or refurbished. Cell phones are toxic waste—just one device in a landfill can contaminate over 150,000 gallons of ground water.

Message from Pastor Jane Chusi in Tanzania

We like to bring many thanks for many things you have done to us. Among them are (i) Money for building pastor's kitchen U.S. $ 850. (ii) Money widow project u.s $200 including many others you have done to us then visited us on August 2006. All those we know is for God glory. Also we are roofing the kitchen that you saw foundation. We had a wonderful worshipping Sunday Service on 3rd December. We blessed 76 students of the confirmation class. Seven students out of them were not baptized in childhood, so we baptized them and then joined in the confirmation. We expect to renovate the parish office so that other rooms can be used for guests. We have a plan to build a rest house so that it can help to increase the income of the parish. Many greetings from Pastor Michael Mkinywa, Evangelists, Church elders, and parishioners. We wish you Merry Christmas and Happy New Year 2007. Pass our love to all people in your church.

God bless you.
