The Leiyooole Missionaries in Kenya

Julia Harrington Leiyooole has served the Lord in Kenya since September, 2006. She married Vincent Leiyooole in June of 2010. During her years of service, Julia has been engaged in a variety of areas including leadership development, addiction recovery and discipleship in both an urban and rural setting.

Her passion is to see people set free from addiction, free from old patterns of bondage and free to love and serve God. She began her ministry in the Samburu region of Northern Kenya, worked several years in the capital city of Nairobi, married Vincent in 2010 and together they returned to Samburu.

In 2016 they formed an NGO called Outreach Mission Team (OMT). (www.outreachmissionteam.com). OMT has allowed them to expand their work and see positive results in the church, community and lives of the people they serve. It works in partnership with World Mission Prayer League and allows them to invite other volunteers and missionaries to become involved with their work.

They are involved in bringing "The Jesus Film" as translated in the local dialect to remote areas as a tool for evangelism, engaging in medical work through mobile clinics, expanding AA recovery work, assisting with educational support and delivering food and water to drought stricken areas.

Vincent continues his Business as Mission program through OMT. Business as Mission's goal is to bring sustainable change through micro loans, business education and spiritual guidance. Vincent learned firsthand that faith and hard work lead to success and a deeper relationship with God. His passion is to empower the Samburu people to prosper spiritually and financially. The end result is a reduction in poverty rates and people who come to develop a healthy dependency on God.
